

Written test

Annexe ENS Tipaza

Full Name: _____

Group:3

Exercise1: Circle the correct word:

Central, basic, or most important part of something:

- a) Specific b) Core c) Motivation

A medical condition where blood pressure is consistently too high:

- a) Stroke b) Heart attack c) Hypertension

Exercise2: Fill in the gaps with the following words:

Principle– specific– motivation– aspect– alternative– establishment– virtual–significant–core.

1. Many students prefer to study a job-related subject as a(an) _____ to an academic course.
2. The flexibility offered by distance learning is seen as a(an) _____ benefit by many students.

Exercise3: Complete each sentence using the words below:

assignment – degree – dissertation – examination – journal

lecturer – plagiarism – semester – seminar – term – tutor

1. The word for a written essay at university is a(n) _____.
2. An academic year can be split into three periods, each called a(n) _____.
3. An academic year can also be divided into two periods, each called a(n) _____.
4. _____ is when students copy from or do not acknowledge their sources when writing an essay.

Exercise5: Complete the text using the verbs below:

Consume – recycle – reduce – reuse – save – throw away – waste.

1. Because of global warming, the temperature of the planet is rising at the moment. To help with this problem, we need to (a) _____ greenhouse gases – the UK government has promised to do this by 80% by 2050.
2. To reach this goal, we need to use less energy. You can (b) _____ energy by doing simple things like switching off the lights when you leave a room.

Exercise 6: Complete the questions using the words below:

Waste _reduce _change _recycle _renewable _warming _save _emission.

1. How serious do you think climate _____ is and why?
2. How is global _____ affecting your country?

Written test

Annexe ENS Tipaza

Full Name: _____

Group:4

Exercise1: Circle the correct word:

1. Important, large, or great:
 - a) significant
 - b) aspect
 - c) feature
2. Damage to the heart muscle caused by blocked blood flow:
 - a) Stroke
 - b) Heart attack
 - c) Coronary heart disease

Exercise2: Fill in the gaps with the following words:

Principle– specific– motivation– aspect– alternative– establishment– virtual– significant–core.

1. One beneficial _____ of university education is meeting other students on the course.
2. Tutors work with students to help them understand the key _____ of their courses.

Exercise3: Complete each sentence using the words below:

*assignment – degree – dissertation – examination – journal
lecturer – plagiarism – semester – seminar – term – tutor*

1. A(n) _____ is a quarterly, peer-reviewed collection of research papers.
2. A(n) _____ is the holder of a research position at a university who also teaches.
3. A(n) _____ is an occasion when a teacher or expert and a group of people meet to study and discuss something.
4. A(n) _____ assumes responsibility for students' academic and personal welfare.

Exercise5: Complete the text using the verbs below:

Consume – recycle – reduce – reuse – save – throw away – waste.

1. And don't forget that we (c) _____ energy when we leave computers or TVs on all night.
2. When we (d) _____ plastic, glass or paper to make new products, we are also helping to protect the environment.

Exercise 6: Complete the questions using the words below:

Waste_reduce_change_recycle_renewable_warming_save_emission.

1. How much _____ energy (such as wind or solar power) is there in your region or country?
2. What positive action do you take to _____ water or electricity?

Written test
(Higher School for Teachers) Tipaza
Full Name: _____
Group:5

Exercise1: Circle the correct word:

1. A feature or part of something:
a) Principle b) Aspect c) Core
2. A disease caused by narrowing of the heart's blood vessels:
a) Heart attack b) Stroke c) Coronary heart disease

Exercise2: Fill in the gaps with the following words:

Principle– specific– motivation— alternative– e– virtual—core..

1. Distance learning requires students to have a high level of _____.
2. Distance learning can make it hard for a teacher to understand a student's _____ learning needs.

Exercise3: Complete each sentence using the words below:

*assignment – degree – dissertation – examination – journal
lecturer – plagiarism – semester – seminar – term – tutor*

1. When you have completed a programme of study at a university, you get a(n) _____.
2. A(n) _____ is a long essay of between 8,000 and 12,000 words.
3. A(n) _____ is a formal test that students must pass to get a specific qualification.

Exercise 4: Complete the text using the verbs below:

Consume – recycle – reduce – reuse – save – throw away – waste.

1. But it's also good to (e) _____ things instead of using them just once.
2. In general, it's sensible to (f) _____ less – we buy lots of things that we don't really need and then quickly (g) _____ all these useless items.

Exercise5: Complete the questions using the words below:

Waste _reduce _change _recycle _renewable _warming _save _emission.

1. What products or materials do you _____ or reuse?
2. How much do you think your region or country is doing to reduce carbon _____ and toxic waste?